The state government started a 45-bed hospital in the building which is built by Mr. Shobhagmal Ji Lodha Mewar Textile Mill, Bhilwara is known as the name of Mahatma Gandhi Arogya Sadan from 5 November 1963, which was developed and expanded to 100 beds in 1970 and then in 1971, it was made commensurate with the capacity of 150 beds and all necessary medical facilities were made available.

In view of the ever-increasing needs of the Bhilwara City Development Trust along with being the district headquarters, business and industrial centre, this hospital was expanded to have 300 beds in 1982 and later 25 infant beds were expanded towards medical facilities.
